

HONS. 02/06/19

B.A. LL.B., (Hons.) DEGREE SECOND SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS, MAY 2019

LAW OF TORT

Time: 3 Hours

Maximum Marks: 50

Answer Any Two of the Following (2x10=20)

1. Explain the vicarious liability of State in India in the light of decided cases.
2. What is no fault liability? Examine the application of no fault liability in India with the support of case laws.
3. Explain how tortious liability will be extinguished.

Answer Any Two of the Following (2x5=10)

4. 'X' is a manufacturing company situating near a residential area, and the inhabitants formed an action group to move against the company for polluting the water resources in that locality. Explain the remedies available.
5. 'X' was a member of a Parish Assembly. He was eligible to cast vote in the annual meeting held on 24. 03. 2019. However he was prevented by a section of people from casting vote. Explain the remedies available to 'X'.
6. 'A' forwarded a defamatory message of his classmate 'Y' to another class group. Discuss the rights available to 'Y'.

Answer any Four of the following (4x5=20)

7. Doctrine of Res Ipsa Loquitur
8. Economic Torts
9. Private nuisance
10. Product liability of a manufacturer
11. Nervous shock