

ONE YEAR LL.M DEGREE FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATION, MARCH 2022

RESEARCH METHODS AND LEGAL WRITING

Time : 3 Hrs

Maximum Marks: 50

Answer ANY FIVE Questions.

Each question carries TEN marks

(5 x 10 = 50)

1. Explain the difference between doctrinal and non-doctrinal methods of conducting research.
2. Describe various steps involved in research process
3. Distinguish between census method and sampling methods. Describe various types of probability sampling methods used by the researcher to select samples from the population.
4. What do you understand by hypothesis? Examine the relevance of hypothesis in research.
5. Explain the essential components of a research report.
6. Discuss the sources and steps involved in case study method
7. Examine the relevance of jurimetrics in the development of the Indian legal system
8. Critically examine various methods used by a researcher to collect primary data.

*****