

THE NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF ADVANCED LEGAL STUDIES
DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY(Ph.D)-LAW
DEPARTMENTAL ADMISSION TEST, NOVEMBER 2020

Maximum Marks 100

Duration: 3hours

PART A

Answer any two Questions. Each Question carries 25 Marks (2*25=50 Marks)

1. Discuss the importance of empirical research with reference to socio legal research? Give your answer citing a research problem related to Protection of Environment?
2. Explain the meaning of hypothesis and its various types? Give your answer with examples?
3. Explain the advantages of sampling method over census method as a research technique? Give your answer with examples?
4. Explain the difference between Questionnaire and Schedule? What are the characteristics of a good questionnaire?

PART B

Answer any Three Questions. Each Question carries 10 Marks (3*10=30 Marks)

1. Analyze the legal conceptualization of personality? What is the status of a fetus as a legal person?
2. Explain the importance of legislation as a modern source of Law? Give your answer with special reference to Prevention of violence against women?
3. Discuss the grounds for Judicial Review of legislations in India?
4. Explain the importance of Directive Principles of state policy? What is the judicial approach in this regard?

PART C

Answer any Two Questions. Each Question carries 10 Marks (2*10=20 Marks)

1. Discuss the role of UN in striving for world peace. Justify your answer with special reference to Middle East?
2. Explain the essential of Criminal Liability? To what extent mensrea is applicable in statutory offences?
3. Critically evaluate the approach of the state towards tortious liability of the state?
4. Explain the concept of Corporate Social Responsibility? To what extent this concept is accepted in India?
5. Explain the changes that happened in the concept of Family? What is the approach of Indian Legal System in this regard? Give your answer with special reference to the decisions of Supreme Court?

6. Critically evaluate the approach of Indian Legal System towards Protection of Environment? Explain the strategy adopted in India to balance human rights and protection of Environment for the purpose of Sustainable Development?
7. Critically evaluate Intellectual Property Right Protection to Computer and Software and Computer Technology?
8. Explain the concept of Judicial Activism and Judicial Accountability? What are the measures adopted in India to ensure judicial accountability?
