

B.A.LL.B., (Hons.) DEGREE NINTH SEMESTER EXAMINATION, MARCH 2022

Law Relating To Women And Child

Duration: 10.00am - 1.00 pm

Maximum Marks: 50

A. Answer any 3 questions from the following. (Each question carry Ten marks(3*10 =30 Marks)

1. Discuss on the concept of Gender sensitization. Should it be provided to members of Indian judiciary as well?
2. Discuss the role of NGO's, Statutory Bodies, National Women Commission, local administration and International Conventions and agencies to promote political equality of women.
3. Discuss briefly about the various offences against women under the Indian Penal Code, 1860.
4. State briefly the remedies provided under the POSH Act, 2013.
5. Comment on the unequal position of Indian Women under different personal laws.

B. Answer any 2 problems from the following.Each question carry Ten marks (2*10 =20 Marks)

1. X, a wife has been evicted from her marital home by her mother in law. Advice X regarding her rights.
2. A female domestic worker Z has been sexually harassed by her employer. Advise her regarding her remedies under the Indian law.
3. S divorced his wife R by sending the word 'Talaq' over whatsapp three times. R seeks maintenance. Advise her.
4. A doctor conducts pre-natal diagnostic test and reveals to the prospective parents that the child in the womb is a boy. Discuss about its legal permissibility.
