

ONE YEAR LL.M. DEGREE FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS, NOVEMBER 2024

PATIENTS' RIGHTS AND LAW

Time: 3 Hours

Maximum Marks: 50

Answer ANY FIVE questions. Each carries TEN marks. (5 x 10 = 50)

1. Give an outline of the judicial approach to a medical malpractice claim in the context of medical negligence and its intersection with the rights of patients.
2. The human rights lens provides a means to examine systemic issues and state responsibility-Elaborate on the role of the State and its agencies in ensuring the right to health for senior citizens in India in the light of this statement.
3. Examine the varied rights of persons with disabilities and critically evaluate the same in light of the legal protection of such rights in India.
4. Explain the role of international instruments and bodies in protecting the rights of patients.
5. Consent is the core principle that runs through human rights jurisprudence- Examine the statement from the perspective of the rights of patients.
6. Comment on the rights of third gender. Elaborate on the extent to which their rights are addressed in our healthcare system in India.
7. The concept of "human rights in patient care" refers to the application of human rights principles to the context of patient care-Discuss the varied facets of human rights.
8. Elaborate on the government policies and programs for the protection of patients' rights in India.
