

PGDMLE/02/ 19

POST GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN MEDICAL LAW AND ETHICS

PAPER-II- Laws of Medicine and Healthcare

Answer Any Eight.

8 x 10= 80 Marks

1. Examine the various ethical concerns raised by surrogacy. Explain the recent developments in the law governing surrogacy in India.
2. Discuss the scope and ambit of MTP Act.
3. Critically examine the law relating to transplantation of human organs and tissues in India.
4. Discuss the various types of Assisted Reproductive Technologies. Examine the law relating to the regulation of ART in India.
5. Examine the role played by the Medical Council of India in maintaining the medical standards in India.
6. Examine the international and national legal framework of right to procreation as a human right.
7. Explain the significance of patient's consent in medical decision making.
8. Social and legal implications of pre-natal sex determination in India.
9. Examine the law in relation to Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances in India.
10. Explain the concept of 'deficiency in medical service' with the help of decided cases.
11. Explain the role played by the professional associations in maintaining the standards of medical profession and ethics in India.
12. "The right to life should also include a right to control the manner of one's death"-
Comment.

*****