

PGDMLE/03/ 19

POST GRADUATE DIPLOMA IN MEDICAL LAW AND ETHICS

PAPER-III- Professional Values and Code of Ethics

Answer Any Eight.

8 x 10= 80 Marks

1. What is Medical Confidentiality? Explain the defenses available to a medical practitioner in the case of breach of confidentiality.
2. Discuss in details the importance of Ethical Guidelines for Biomedical Research on Human Participants.
3. Discuss the scope and utility of evidence based medical practice.
4. What is consent? Examine the importance of informed consent in medical treatments.
5. What do you mean by Good Clinical Practice (GCP). Explain in detail the scope and significance of GCP in India.
6. Explain the four basic principles of medical ethics. Analyse how far it is relevant in the modern medical practice.
7. To what extent, the right to privacy can be protected in this modern era of electronic medical records.
8. Discuss the scope and significance of Code of Medical Ethics and its role in maintenance of standards in medical profession.
9. Discuss the scope of alternative medicines and indigenous systems of medical treatments with special reference to India.
10. What are Advanced Medical Directives or Living Wills? Examine the practical problems associated with the same.
11. Examine the legal framework in India relating to the geriatric care.
12. Distinguish between Euthanasia and PAS. Examine the development of law relating to the same in India