

Law of Forensic Science

Duration: 10.00am - 1.45 pm

Maximum Marks: 50

Answer All questions. Each question carry Ten marks (5 X10 =50 Marks)

Module 1 (Time 10 a.m-10.45 a.m (35 minutes for writing and 10 minutes for uploading)

a) Comment upon the origin and development of forensic science in India. Suggest reforms for the improvement of the system.

OR

b) Analyse the Mallimath Committee report on reforms in criminal law with special reference to forensic science

Module 2 Time 10.45 a.m-11.30 a.m (35 minutes for writing and 10 minutes for uploading)

a) What is the relevance of serology and toxicology in criminal investigation? Give examples.

OR

b) Critically analyse the system of recording of finger prints in India.

Module 3(Time 11.30 a.m-12.15 p.m (35 minutes for writing and 10 minutes for uploading)

a) What are the various tools used for handwriting forensic examination?

OR

b) What is meant by ink line analysis? What is the extent of reliability of this technique?

Module 4((Time 12.15 p.m-1.00 p.m (35 minutes for writing and 10 minutes for uploading)

a) Explain ballistic fingerprinting. What are the various tools used for ballistics fingerprinting?

OR

b) What is meant by fire arm examination? What are the various techniques used?

Module 5(Time 1.00 p.m-1.45 p.m (35 minutes for writing and 10 minutes for uploading)

a) Examine the scope and application of cyber forensics in India?

OR

b) Comment upon the framework of forensic Laboratories in India?.